

Dr.P.V.Raghava Varier

Chairman & Chief Physician (Emeritus)

AVN Ayurveda Group based at Madurai

Arya Vaidyan P V Raghava Varier was born on the 2nd of October 1932, at Ayyappan kavu Variam, Cherippur, (near) Pattambi, Kerala to Late Smt. Parukutty Varasiar and late Sri. T.Madhava Varier, brings with him a rich and vast experience of more than 55 years of glorious Ayurvedic clinical practice. He did his schooling in Karimpuzha and after clearing his entrance to the Ayurveda course at a tender age of 13, he joined the Ayurveda Patasala at Kotakkal. Passing out as the first rank holder from his college he joined his cousin the illustrious Arya Vaidya P.V.Rama Varier and took charge of their Chennai branch after a brief stint of 9 months at the factory in Kanjikkode. Thereafter, he was appointed the first chief physician of their Delhi branch and was then an honorary Physician to the President of India Dr.Radhakrishnan.After his marriage to Smt. Meenakshi the daughter of the illustrious Arya Vaidyan N.,Rama Varier of AVN Madurai, he moved to Madurai, taking up the reigns of AVN. Since then he has been the guiding force, leading the team at AVN to its present state.

Having an encyclopedic knowledge on Ayurveda, and with the deep interest in upgrading his knowledge, he developed a deep understanding of modern medicine. Arya Vaidyan Raghava Varier has been successfully adopting a holistic approach in Ayurvedic practice and has successfully treated large number of patients who vouch for his extraordinary healing power. He has won prizes at several thesis competitions on different topics in Ayurveda and has presented papers at various forums on Ayurveda. Being a great visionary, he has spearheaded the formulation and development of many disease specific proprietary Ayurvedic formulations. Being a socially committed person, he has been president and active participant in various forums like the Rotary club, Malayali Samajam etc

A religiously inclined person, Dr.P.V.Raghava Varier, has been actively involved in the activities of the Ayyappa Seva Sangham Madurai. He heads the team that takes care of the activities of the Ayyappa temple at Madurai. With great enthusiasm and dedication, Dr Varier continues his mission to serve humanity through the great science of Ayurveda and through his philanthropic activities.